MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE
CUMULATIVE EXPERT WITNESS TESTIMONY

Plaintiff Lori Koontz, R.N., by counsel, hereby respectfully moves pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 403 to exclude cumulative expert witness testimony in this medical malpractice case.

As set forth in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Defendants have identified six expert witnesses to testify as to causation/damages alone, in addition to two expert witnesses to testify as to standard of care. This overkill tactic serves no purpose other than to give a jury the false impression that testimony by weight of repetition equals merit.

Plaintiff respectfully moves the Court to grant this Motion in Limine, and compel Defendants to limit the presentation of expert witness testimony as to causation/damages issues. Defendants should be compelled to elect no later than 30 days before trial.

Plaintiffs' counsel contacted Defendants' counsel who would not consent to the relief sought.

Dated: November 7, 2013

Respectfully submitted,
